1. Introduction

- 1.1 These Website Terms of Use ("Terms") govern your access to and use of the website operated by the International Society of Equity Analysts ("ISEA", "we", "us" or "our"), including the website located at and any successor website, domain or online platform operated by ISEA from time to time (collectively, the "Website").
- 1.2 By accessing, browsing or using the Website, you acknowledge that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these Terms.
- 1.3 If you do not agree to these Terms, you must not use the Website.
- 1.4 These Terms apply to all users of the Website, including visitors, prospective members, Members, Fellows, students, applicants, employers, event participants, authors, researchers and other persons who access or use any part of the Website.
- 1.5 Additional terms may apply to particular services, programs or activities offered by ISEA. Where applicable, those terms will operate in conjunction with these Terms.

2. About ISEA

- 2.1 ISEA is a professional society dedicated to advancing the practice, knowledge, standards and professional development of equity analysts and related investment professionals internationally.
- 2.2 ISEA may provide or facilitate professional membership, education, continuing professional development, research, publications, events, networking, mentoring, employment and career resources, professional recognition, examinations, assessments, certifications, designations and other services or activities.
- 2.3 ISEA may change, expand, suspend or discontinue any Website feature, service, program, publication or activity from time to time.
- 2.4 Nothing on the Website constitutes a representation that any particular service, program, membership category, designation, event, publication or benefit will remain available indefinitely.

3. Acceptance of These Terms

- 3.1 By using the Website, you agree to comply with:
 - (a) these Terms;
 - (b) the Privacy Policy;
 - (c) the Cookie Policy;
 - (d) the Disclaimer;
 - (e) the Accessibility Statement;
 - (f) all applicable laws and regulations.
- 3.2 Where a specific ISEA service is subject to separate terms and those terms conflict with these Terms, the specific terms will prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

4. Changes to These Terms

- 4.1 ISEA may amend these Terms from time to time to reflect changes to the Website, ISEA's activities, applicable law, technology, security requirements or other legitimate operational requirements.
- 4.2 The current version of these Terms will be published on the Website.
- 4.3 Changes will take effect from the date specified in the updated Terms or, where no date is specified, from the date of publication.
- 4.4 Your continued use of the Website following the effective date of amended Terms constitutes acceptance of the amended Terms.

4.5 Where an amendment materially affects an existing contractual relationship with a Member or other person, ISEA will provide any notice required by applicable law or by the relevant contractual terms.

5. Eligibility

5.1 You may use the Website only if you are legally capable of entering into an agreement under applicable law.

5.2 Certain ISEA services may have additional eligibility requirements.

5.3 Where an ISEA membership, designation, examination, event or other service has an age, qualification, professional experience or other eligibility requirement, those requirements will apply in addition to these Terms.

6. Website Content

6.1 The Website contains information concerning ISEA, its activities, professional standards, membership, educational programs, publications, events and other matters.

6.2 ISEA seeks to maintain accurate and current information on the Website but does not warrant that all information will always be complete, current, accurate or error-free.

6.3 Information may be updated, corrected, modified or withdrawn without notice.

6.4 Website content is provided for general informational and professional purposes and should not be regarded as a substitute for obtaining appropriate professional, legal, financial, taxation or other specialist advice.

7. No Financial or Investment Advice

7.1 ISEA is a professional society and is not your financial adviser, investment adviser, broker, dealer, portfolio manager or personal investment representative merely because you access the Website or participate in an ISEA activity.

7.2 Nothing on the Website constitutes:

- (a) personal financial advice;
- (b) personal investment advice;
- (c) a recommendation to buy, sell or hold a particular security;
- (d) an offer or solicitation to acquire or dispose of securities;
- (e) a recommendation concerning the suitability of an investment for any particular person; or
- (f) a representation that any investment strategy, security, valuation or forecast will achieve a particular result.

7.3 ISEA publications, research, educational materials and commentary may discuss securities, companies, markets, valuation methodologies, investment strategies and economic conditions.

7.4 Users are responsible for obtaining their own professional advice and conducting their own due diligence before making investment or financial decisions.

8. Research and Professional Content

8.1 ISEA may publish or make available equity research, financial analysis, academic material, technical papers, market commentary, educational material and other professional content.

8.2 Such material may represent the views of its individual authors and does not necessarily represent the views of ISEA.

8.3 Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future performance.

8.4 Forecasts, estimates, valuations, price targets and other forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions, uncertainties and risks.

8.5 ISEA does not guarantee the accuracy, completeness or future performance of any research, analysis, valuation, forecast or investment thesis published on the Website.

8.6 Users should independently verify information before relying upon it.

9. Professional Designations

9.1 ISEA may establish and administer professional membership designations, post-nominals, certificates, credentials or other forms of professional recognition.

9.2 The eligibility, use, renewal, suspension and revocation of ISEA designations are governed by the applicable ISEA membership and designation policies.

9.3 No person may represent that they hold an ISEA designation unless they have been formally authorised by ISEA to use that designation.

9.4 ISEA may publish a member or designation verification facility through which the status of an individual may be verified.

9.5 ISEA may suspend or revoke the right to use an ISEA designation where permitted under its applicable policies.

10. Membership

10.1 Membership of ISEA is subject to the applicable Membership Terms and Conditions and any applicable admission criteria.

10.2 Payment of a membership fee does not necessarily constitute acceptance of an application where ISEA's membership structure requires an application to be reviewed or approved.

10.3 Membership benefits, privileges, categories, fees and requirements may be changed from time to time subject to applicable law and the applicable Membership Terms and Conditions.

10.4 Members remain responsible for complying with the professional, ethical and membership requirements applicable to their category of membership.

11. User Accounts

11.1 Certain areas of the Website may require you to create an account.

11.2 You must provide information that is accurate, complete and not misleading.

11.3 You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your login credentials.

11.4 You must promptly notify ISEA if you suspect that your account has been accessed without authorisation.

11.5 You must not:

- (a) share your account credentials with another person;
- (b) allow another person to use your account;
- (c) create an account using another person's identity;
- (d) create an account for fraudulent or misleading purposes; or
- (e) circumvent account-security measures.

11.6 ISEA may suspend or terminate an account where reasonably necessary for security, legal, operational or governance purposes.

12. User Submissions

- 12.1 The Website may allow users to submit or upload information, applications, articles, research, comments, photographs, documents, profiles, reviews, employment advertisements or other material ("User Content").
- 12.2 You remain responsible for User Content that you submit.
- 12.3 By submitting User Content, you represent and warrant that:
- (a) you have the right to submit the material;
 - (b) the material is accurate to the best of your knowledge;
 - (c) the material does not unlawfully infringe another person's intellectual property rights;
 - (d) the material does not unlawfully disclose another person's confidential or personal information;
 - (e) the material does not contain malicious software; and
 - (f) the material does not otherwise breach applicable law or these Terms.
- 12.4 You must not submit User Content that is:
- (a) fraudulent;
 - (b) deceptive;
 - (c) defamatory;
 - (d) threatening;
 - (e) unlawful;
 - (f) discriminatory;
 - (g) abusive;
 - (h) sexually explicit where inappropriate to the relevant service;
 - (i) invasive of another person's privacy;
 - (j) infringing of intellectual property rights; or
 - (k) intended to facilitate unlawful activity.

13. Licence to User Content

- 13.1 To the extent necessary for ISEA to operate the Website and provide its services, you grant ISEA a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free licence to host, store, reproduce, format, display and otherwise use User Content that you submit.
- 13.2 The licence in clause 13.1 is limited to purposes reasonably connected with operating, administering, promoting and improving the relevant ISEA service, program or publication.
- 13.3 Where User Content is submitted for publication, you acknowledge that it may be edited, formatted, reviewed, moderated, rejected or removed in accordance with applicable ISEA policies.
- 13.4 ISEA does not acquire ownership of your underlying intellectual property merely because you submit User Content, except where a separate written agreement provides otherwise.

14. Intellectual Property

- 14.1 Unless otherwise stated, the Website and its content are owned by, licensed to or otherwise controlled by ISEA.
- 14.2 This includes:
- (a) ISEA's name;
 - (b) logos;
 - (c) trademarks;
 - (d) service marks;
 - (e) branding;

- (n) digital badges;
- (o) certificates; and
- (p) other proprietary materials.

14.3 You must not reproduce, modify, distribute, publicly display, publish, sell, license or commercially exploit ISEA intellectual property without prior written permission, except where permitted by law.

14.4 You may download or print reasonable portions of publicly available Website material for personal, non-commercial and informational purposes provided that all copyright and attribution notices are retained.

15. ISEA Trademarks and Designations

15.1 ISEA names, logos, designations, post-nominals and other identifying marks may constitute trademarks or other protected intellectual property.

15.2 No right to use ISEA trademarks or designations is granted merely by accessing the Website.

15.3 Members may use approved designations only in accordance with the applicable ISEA Designation and Post-Nominal Policy.

15.4 Unauthorised use of ISEA trademarks, designations or credentials may result in removal of the relevant material and further action where appropriate.

16. Third-Party Content and Links

16.1 The Website may contain links to third-party websites, platforms, publications, services or resources.

16.2 Third-party links are provided for convenience and do not necessarily constitute endorsement, approval or recommendation by ISEA.

16.3 ISEA does not control third-party websites and is not responsible for their content, availability, privacy practices, security or terms.

16.4 Your use of third-party services is subject to the relevant third party's terms and policies.

17. Events and Programs

17.1 ISEA may provide conferences, seminars, webinars, masterclasses, networking events, mentoring programs and other activities.

17.2 Individual events or programs may be subject to additional terms.

17.3 ISEA may change the date, venue, format, speakers or other aspects of an event where reasonably necessary.

17.4 ISEA does not guarantee that any particular speaker, presenter, mentor, participant or program will be available.

18. Job Board and Employment Services

- 18.1 Where the Website contains employment advertisements or a job board, ISEA may provide the facility as a platform for connecting employers, recruiters and candidates.
- 18.2 ISEA does not guarantee:
- (a) the accuracy of a job advertisement;
 - (b) the legitimacy of an employer;
 - (c) that a position remains available;
 - (d) that an applicant will obtain employment; or
 - (e) the suitability of an applicant or employer.
- 18.3 ISEA is not necessarily a party to any employment relationship arising between a candidate and an employer.
- 18.4 Additional Job Board Terms may apply.

19. Prohibited Use

You must not use the Website:

- (a) for unlawful purposes;
- (b) to commit fraud;
- (c) to impersonate another person;
- (d) to misrepresent your professional qualifications or membership status;
- (e) to falsely claim an ISEA designation;
- (f) to upload malicious software;
- (g) to interfere with Website security;
- (h) to attempt unauthorised access;
- (i) to scrape or harvest data except where expressly permitted;
- (j) to send spam;
- (k) to distribute unsolicited commercial communications;
- (l) to infringe intellectual property rights;
- (m) to harass, threaten or abuse another person;
- (n) to publish defamatory or knowingly false material;
- (o) to manipulate Website functionality;
- (p) to circumvent access controls;
- (q) to use automated systems in a manner that places unreasonable load on the Website; or
- (r) in any manner that may damage ISEA's systems, reputation or legitimate interests.

20. Website Security

- 20.1 ISEA takes reasonable measures to maintain the security and integrity of the Website.
- 20.2 However, no internet transmission or electronic storage system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.
- 20.3 You acknowledge that use of the internet involves inherent security risks.
- 20.4 You must not attempt to introduce viruses, malware, ransomware, malicious code or other harmful material into the Website.

21. Availability of the Website

- 21.1 ISEA aims to maintain the Website as reasonably available but does not guarantee uninterrupted or error-free operation.
- 21.2 The Website may occasionally be unavailable because of:
- (a) maintenance;
 - (b) upgrades;
 - (c) security incidents;
 - (d) technical failures;
 - (e) telecommunications failures;
 - (f) third-party service failures;
 - (g) cyber incidents; or
 - (h) circumstances beyond ISEA's reasonable control.
- 21.3 ISEA may suspend or modify the Website where reasonably necessary.

22. Disclaimer of Warranties

- 22.1 To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Website and its content are provided on an "as available" basis.
- 22.2 ISEA does not warrant that:
- (a) the Website will always be available;
 - (b) the Website will be free from errors;
 - (c) information will always be current;
 - (d) content will be complete;
 - (e) the Website will be free from viruses or other harmful components; or
 - (f) the Website will satisfy every user's particular requirements.
- 22.3 Nothing in these Terms excludes any guarantee, condition, right or remedy that cannot lawfully be excluded.

23. Limitation of Liability

- 23.1 To the maximum extent permitted by law, ISEA will not be liable for loss arising from your use of, or inability to use, the Website, including indirect, incidental or consequential loss.
- 23.2 This may include, where legally permissible:
- (a) loss of profits;
 - (b) loss of revenue;
 - (c) loss of business opportunity;
 - (d) loss of anticipated savings;
 - (e) loss of data; or
 - (f) loss arising from reliance on Website content.
- 23.3 Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability to the extent that doing so would be unlawful.
- 23.4 Nothing in these Terms is intended to exclude, restrict or modify rights or remedies available under the Australian Consumer Law or other mandatory applicable law. The last provision is important. Australian consumer guarantees and unfair-contract-term rules mean a blanket "ISEA accepts no liability whatsoever" provision is not a good approach. ([ACCC][1])

24. Indemnity

24.1 To the extent permitted by law, you agree to indemnify ISEA against losses, liabilities, claims and reasonable costs arising from your:

- (a) unlawful use of the Website;
- (b) breach of these Terms;
- (c) infringement of another person's intellectual property rights;
- (d) misuse of ISEA's intellectual property;
- (e) fraudulent or misleading conduct; or
- (f) User Content that you submit.

24.2 This clause does not apply to the extent that the relevant loss was caused by ISEA's own unlawful conduct or negligence, or where its application would otherwise be prohibited by law.

25. Privacy

25.1 ISEA's collection, use, storage and disclosure of personal information is governed by the ISEA Privacy Policy.

25.2 By using the Website, you acknowledge that personal information may be collected and handled in accordance with that Privacy Policy.

25.3 The Privacy Policy forms part of the broader legal framework governing use of the Website but does not replace these Terms. Privacy Policy →

26. Cookies and Analytics

26.1 ISEA may use cookies, analytics technologies and similar technologies to operate, secure, analyse and improve the Website.

26.2 The use of such technologies is addressed further in the ISEA Privacy Policy and, where applicable, Cookie Policy.

27. Suspension and Termination of Access

27.1 ISEA may restrict or suspend your access to all or part of the Website where reasonably necessary to:

- (a) protect Website security;
- (b) investigate suspected misuse;
- (c) comply with law;
- (d) protect another person's rights;
- (e) prevent fraud or abuse; or
- (f) protect ISEA's legitimate interests.

27.2 Where appropriate, ISEA may provide notice before restricting access.

27.3 Suspension or termination of Website access does not necessarily terminate any separate membership relationship.

28. Complaints and Reporting

28.1 If you believe that Website content:

- (a) infringes intellectual property rights;
- (b) is unlawful;
- (c) is fraudulent;
- (d) impersonates another person;

- (e) breaches these Terms; or
- (f) otherwise presents a legitimate concern,

you may notify ISEA using the contact details published on the Website.

- 28.2 ISEA may investigate reported material and may remove, modify or restrict access to material where reasonably appropriate.

29. Dispute Resolution

- 29.1 ISEA encourages users to contact ISEA first to attempt to resolve any concern informally.
- 29.2 A complaint should provide sufficient information to enable ISEA to understand and investigate the matter.
- 29.3 Where appropriate, ISEA may seek to resolve disputes through negotiation or another appropriate dispute-resolution process before court proceedings are commenced.
- 29.4 Nothing in this clause prevents a party from seeking urgent interlocutory or injunctive relief where necessary to protect its rights.
- 29.5 Nothing in this clause prevents a person from exercising any statutory right or remedy that cannot lawfully be excluded.

30. Governing Law

- 30.1 These Terms are governed by the laws of Queensland, Australia.
- 30.2 Subject to any mandatory rights or remedies available under applicable law, you submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of Queensland, Australia.
- 30.3 Where applicable law requires a dispute to be determined in another jurisdiction, nothing in this clause is intended to prevent that requirement from applying.

31. International Users

- 31.1 The Website may be accessed internationally.
- 31.2 ISEA does not represent that the Website, its services or its professional programs comply with the laws of every jurisdiction in which the Website may be accessed.
- 31.3 Users outside Australia are responsible for determining whether their use of the Website and participation in ISEA programs complies with applicable local law.
- 31.4 Nothing on the Website constitutes an offer to provide regulated financial, investment, legal, accounting or other professional services in a jurisdiction where ISEA is not authorised to provide those services.

32. Force Majeure

ISEA will not be responsible for delay or failure to perform an obligation to the extent caused by circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including natural disasters, war, terrorism, civil unrest, government action, telecommunications failures, cyber incidents, widespread technology failures, pandemics or failures of third-party infrastructure.

33. Severability

If any provision of these Terms is found to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision will be read down or severed to the extent necessary, and the remaining provisions will continue to operate to the extent permitted by law.

34. No Waiver

A failure or delay by ISEA to exercise a right under these Terms does not constitute a waiver of that right. A waiver on one occasion does not constitute a waiver on any subsequent occasion.

35. Assignment

You may not transfer or assign your rights or obligations under these Terms without ISEA's prior written consent.

ISEA may transfer or assign its rights and obligations where reasonably necessary in connection with a corporate restructure, merger, transfer of business or other legitimate organisational change, subject to applicable law.

36. Entire Agreement

36.1 These Terms, together with any documents expressly incorporated by reference, constitute the terms governing your use of the Website.

36.2 They do not replace any separate agreement governing membership, employment, professional designation, examination, event participation, mentoring, publication or another specific ISEA service.

37. Relationship With Other ISEA Documents
